

EC 615

May 1, 2019

The EC curator begs, once again, readers' pardon, taking full responsibility, for the tardy transmission of this week's EC owing to his being occupied with caring for a traditional Catholic priest friend, Fr. Joseph F. Collins, at his last hour – and who entered immortality shortly before noon on Easter Saturday. Though his differences with the Society and His Excellency were well known, he was a good man and priest, who even in later years enjoyed occasions of amicable conviviality with our good Bishop. Prayers for the repose of his soul would be welcome; funeral details have been posted here, for those interested. Readers are thanked profusely for their patience.
