

Re-sending no. 378

October 24, 2014

Based upon readers' advice that EC no. 378 was very poorly formatted for some e-mail clients, we are re-transmitting it for hopefully improved reading. Thus, for Christ the King weekend, subscribers will have two EC's in their inboxes; EC 380 will follow close upon the re-transmission of 378. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the first poor transmission, and hope that, this time around, no. 378 is legible.
